by
Shelley Rhodes

This full day workshop will be very inspiring and looking at textiles in a very modern way. Shelley will inspire us to create a sketchbook, where one 'page' links to the next. These 'pages' will have been inspired by miniscule detail through drawing, mark making, layering of fabric, reworking and stitching to create a tactile book. The full day workshop is from ten o'clock to four o'clock will be at the Quaker Exhibition Centre in Kendal. Refreshments will be available in the cafe downstairs for lunch and breaks.

The cost is £30 for non EG members, £25 for other EG members and £20 for Kendal EG members.

Contact Anne Wilson at Kendaleg@hotmail.co.uk to book your place as places are limited
