

Open Culture Summer Arts Market

Liverpool Anglican Cathedral,
St. James Mount, Liverpool L1 7AZ

Saturday 17 June 2017 from 10am – 7pm
£3 entry / children (under 16) free

Open Culture are back with Merseyside's largest arts and crafts market, the Open Culture Summer Arts Market. Staged this year in the awe inspiring Liverpool Cathedral the market will transform this stunning venue into a bustling independent shopping experience.

So pop along with your friends and family to shop for all things handmade and beautiful!

Over 200 of the region's best artists, designers and makers will be selling everything you can imagine – from paintings and contemporary jewellery to bold screenprints, bright homewares, cards, and photography to glassware, textiles and beauty products.

There will also be a whole Vintage Fair downstairs in the Cathedral's Concert Room, alongside a food fair offering delicious artisan food and drinks.
