

Re-View Textile to exhibit at Farfield Mill in the Autumn

‘A Small World’

13th Sept – 29th October 2017

Farfield Mill, Garsdale Rd, Sedbergh LA10 5LW

Exciting news – Re-View Textile will be exhibiting at Farfield Mill in the Autumn.

Farfield Mill is an arts, craft and heritage centre housed in a restored Victorian Woollen Mill in the Yorkshire Dales – heritage displays, working looms, exhibitions, craft demonstrations, art and craft for sale by resident and visiting artists, workshops and events – plus delicious food in Weavers Cafe.

We have made a collection of curious, miniature works. Reminiscent of displayed collections of oddities around the globe, brought back by travelling collectors in the era before the electronic age gave us all a wider taste of the world.

Curiosities include – micro sea-life, beach combing assemblages, a child’s dream, a mermaid, bugs, felt flowers, pairs of objects from a nature table, a story of exploitation of natural resources, minutiae of vegetable surfaces, cityscapes.

Artists : Sue Boardman, Janet Wilkinson, Rosey Paul, Yvonne Deegan, Jo Frankel, Viv Netherwood, Judith Railton, Jen Fenner, Catherine Carmyllie, Marion Roberts
