

Stitching Workshops

Join names like Val Hughes, Pat Archibald or Jennie Raiment for a one hour workshop where you could discover ginkgo leaf design, dry felt making or create machine embroidered seascapes! Classes just £8 per person!

Yao Ming Chien Embroideries

The first showing of a collection of giant hand-embroidered wall hangings by a locally living Taiwanese refugee. Yao Ming Chien painstakingly transfers his images to canvas, before colouring it with hand stitches and tiny beads. One of his most elaborate took four months, and a magnifying glass to complete!

Creative Den Workshops

Learn from paper craft expert Cathie Shuttleworth, embroidery queen Wendy Dolan, felt artist Val Hughes or skilled silver clay worker Tracey Spurgin in a one hour workshop where you'll take home something beautiful plus new skills! Book online to secure your place.

Nikki Parmenter Artworks

An exclusive display from Cheshire's specialist in mixed media, textile based pieces. Nikki's artwork, based on symbolism, mythology and different cultures, uses a unique way of working with a variety of media, particularly textiles. The work is heavily embellished and often on an ambitious scale.
