

MEG Programme 2021

16th January 2021 WORKSHOP with Jenny O'Leary "Laminated Tissue". The meeting will be in two parts on Zoom. From 10am–12 midday, then a break, then from 2pm–4pm. Jenny O'Leary specialises in using hot wax as a resist on tissue paper with inks and bleach in her work. Jenny will do a step by step presentation of her techniques, but if you would like to join in you can find a requirements list here. We hope that as many people as possible will join in the day as if it was a normal 'live' workshop and time has been allowed for this in the gap between presentations. If you would like to participate in this way, the equipment list is detailed in the link. Please make sure that you are aware of the safety protocols included before taking part on the day. We welcome members of other EG branches to join us. Please contact Sarah at coursebooking@megonline.co.uk if you would like to book a place. Cost is £15 payable by BACS.

20th February 2021 TALK with Hilary Naghashi "Persian Delights". Hilary will introduce us to the textile culture of Iran, in an illustrated talk. If we can't travel the world in reality, we can do so with MEG from the comfort of our armchairs! 2pm-4pm on Zoom. We welcome members of other EG branches to join us. Please contact Sarah at coursebooking@megonline.co.uk if you would like to book a place. Cost is £5 payable by BACS.

20th March 2021 TALK with Susan Briscoe "Sashiko". Susan is a leading expert in Sashiko and Boro. This will be an illustrated talk about Japanese textiles and this Japanese sewing technique. Another chance to travel the world! 2pm-4pm by Zoom. We welcome members of other EG branches to join us. Please contact Sarah at coursebooking@megonline.co.uk if you would like to book a place. Cost is £5 payable by BACS.
